

TIME OF PRESENTATION		26/11/2021: 09h30- 12h30 (FR) 14h00- 17h00 (IN)
French Time	Indian Time	One health
9:30 - 9:31	14:00 - 14:01	Introduction to the session	Dr. Anupama Ambika Anilkumar	Deputy Attaché for University and Scientific Cooperation	Embassy of France in India
9:31-9:55	14:01-14:25	Machine learning tools to measure Liver Pressure and fibrosis	Dr. Shiv Kumar Sarin	Director	Institute of Liver and Biliary Diseases
9:55-10:20	14:25-14:50	Chemical nose sensor strategies in health: Predicting cell states, drugs mechanism and identifying disease-specific amyloid	Dr. Nathalie Gagey Eilstein and Dr. Sarit Agasti	Professor	Université de Paris3 and JNCASR, Bangalore
10:20-10:45	14:50-15:15	Reducing the use of alcohol and tobacco in population : a new integrated strategy – Mukti–path	Dr. Abhay Bang	Social activist and researcher	Centre for Ayurveda Biology and Holistic Nutrition, The University of Trans–
10:45-11:10	15:15-15:40	Emerging zoonotic diseases: accelerating the One Health implementation	Dr. Serge Morand	Scientist	SEM Montpellier University Montpellier
11:10-11:35	15:40-16:05	Biodiversity, Pathogens and One Health	Dr. Uma Ramakrishnan	Professor	NCBS, Bangalore
11:35- 12:00	16:05- 16:30	Exposure to estrogenic isoflavones from legumes. New evaluation in France and potential health consequences	Dr. Alok Srivastava	Professor	CMC Vellore
12:00- 12:25	16:30-16:55	NeoHemog: the solution to a public health need: high throughput screening for hemoglobin	Dr. Patrick Ducoroy	CEO	BIOMANEO, Dijon, France
12:25- 13:00	16:55-17:20	Zebrafish : an animal model for biomedical research	Dr. Karima Kissa	Researcher	UMR5235–CNRS – Montpellier, France.
13:00- 13:25	17:20-17:45	How Complex are Non–Communicable Diseases in Indians : A Translational Point of View?	Dr. G.R. Chandak	Professor	CCMB, Hyderabad
13:25- 13: 50	17:45-18:10	The role of cGMP in gut physiology: relevance to diarrheal disease	Dr. Sandhya S Visweswariah	Professor	IISC, Bangalore